United Way campaign in second week

The Tri-Cities Area United Way campaign will reach its halfway mark with the second of four report meetings to be held at 4:30 p.m. Wednesday at the YMCA, 20th Street and Edwards.

The level of contributions had reached 43 per cent, or $168,819 of the $400,000 minimum goal, at the initial report session Oct. 3. Fred Jarrett, chairman, said leaders in all drive committees during the weekend emphasized that "good follow-up is essential" to the success of the

"We hope you have selected the accounts assigned to you—and that you were given the opportunity to describe the needs of our community to your account holders."

"Please make doubly sure that each company's campaign actually has started and is progressing rapidly," he said.

Two hurt in 3-car crash

A three-vehicle accident at 5th and Adams street at 1 p.m. Saturday left two women in serious condition in two women who were admitted at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Drives of the vehicles were Mrs. Edward M. (Massman) Jarrett, 19, of 1905 Massman St.; William C. Butler, 22, of 2385 Monroe St., operator of a Reeves Radiant Co. truck; and Doris F. Edwards, 23, of 2306 Conner

Police said Mrs. Jarrett's auto was southbound on Adams and collided at 28th street with the westbound truck. Butler swerved his vehicle, attempting to avoid the collision, but struck the front of Mrs. Edwards' car.

Mrs. Jarrett sustained abrasions and contusions to the rib area and leg and scrapes to the right leg.

Mrs. Linda Kibbons, 34, of 2707 Roosevelt Ave., a sister of Mrs. Jarrett, and a passenger in her auto, suffered two fractures of the left leg, two broken ribs, a fractured shoulder and a cut on the left hand.

Both women underwent a series of x-rays before being hospitalized. Neither Butler nor Mrs. Edwards reportedly sustained injuries.

GC Junior Achievement 1973-74 program begins

Junior Achievement opened its doors for Quad-City area students today. It is estimated 400 students from the community will participate in the business education program at the Granite City JA Business Center during the next 30 weeks.

Businessmen from six local firms are counseling Achievers in the organization and operation of their 16 small companies.

Fifteen companies will Products being manufactured by the Granite City mini corporations include a sandwich cart, tarpaulin, fudge personal embossed matches and the ever-popular barbecue pit.

Sponsoring firms for the 16 companies are: A. O. Smith Corp., Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., Illinois Power Co., Granite City Steel Co., American Steel Foundries and First Granite City National Bank.

The St. Louis area JA program was rated at the No. 1佳 in the nation this year. It was also the largest, with 7,600 youths participating in management of 273 JA companies.

Junior Achievement is a nationwide program for teenagers which enables them to grow in knowledge of the principles of enterprise and business through operation of their own small corporations.

More innovative state leadership would see value of Southwest College- SIUE link—Wiley

Dr. Deane Wiley, professor of education at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, who has been host to meetings on the SIUE campus at which the Southwestern Junior College district plan was discussed, has written the Illinois Junior College Board urging consideration of a junior college based on a new concept.

He asked for reconsideration of the Southwestern proposal of the Southwestern Junior College district plan.

"To my knowledge, your staff has not yet approached SIUE to ascertain the wide number of possibilities inherent in such a linkage," he said. His text follows:

"For some time now, I have quietly watched your staff go through what appears to be the public process of putting their decision on the petition for a Southwestern Junior College district.

"I must finally communicate to you my conviction concerning the lack of new perspective apparently brought to bear on this entire matter."

"I have consistently heard and read that the recommended district is too small. Yet, the criteria used to determine the comment is apparently a financial one that is applied to all Junior college district formation."

"Apparently no member of your staff has seized upon the notion of difference set forward for this proposed junior college based upon linkages with Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville and the highly diversified nature of its environmental setting."

"These readily apparent differences, and some which might be challengingly imagined by those not striving for 'look alike,' be alike' junior colleges could produce a junior college which might serve as a different model rather than being modeled after all the most of what now exist."

"It seems to me that the challenges referred to by the staff to date is the challenge to think differently, plan differently and—most of all—take a leadership position in a boldly different design rather than remaining safely behind the massive barricade of junior colleges already in existence in the state."

"This is transparently a time of increasing fiscal austerity for higher education, coupled with an apparent decline in junior college enrollment as well as several college.

"May I suggest to you that we seize the virtue of the times and create new and different modes of education for the potential junior college student?"

"State at hand indicates this student is turning in increasing numbers toward the proprietary school."

"I suggest that among other things, the proposed Southwestern Junior College may be more oriented toward the proprietary ventures than ever."

"In conclusion, I must reiterate and urge that your staff become less involved in applying criteria which may be increasingly in view of the linkages described above."

"I urge you and your staff to examine the exciting educational differences that could certainly accrue from a re-examination of the Southwestern proposal."

"To the best of my knowledge, your staff has not yet approached SIUE to ascertain the wide number of possibilities inherent in such a linkage."

"Fortunately, I will be in the East on business at the time of your Oct. 19 meeting."

"Therefore, I can only hope that you will seize the Southwestern opportunity as an opportunity for the creation of a very different junior college district rather than simply taking the easy way of forced annexation and an opportunity forever lost."

The closing prayer was written by the Rev. Peter Marshall.

Eight members and three guests, Mrs. Edith Etherton, Mrs. Eula Davis and Mrs. Marilyn Heaton, met in the church fellowship hall in the morning for a quilting session. Mrs. Beulah Fox

Marijuana charge against GC youth

A 16-year-old Granite City youth was arrested and charged with breaking and entering at 6:45 p.m. Thursday after police discovered the boy with three other youths, aged 17, 18 and 15, in a room in the 2500 block of Northbridge.

Patrolling officers said the car windows were misted and a strong odor of marijuana was evident when the auto doors were opened.

A clear plastic bag containing 23 grams of cannabis was found in the clothing of the 16-year-old youth. Two youths were laying on the wooden floor, police said.

None of the other youths had marijuana in their possession and were not detained. The juvenile was released to his parents on notice to appear for a hearing at a later date.

Unlikely any governor will be on 1976 national ticket

By KEN WATSON
Statehouse News Service

SPRINGFIELD — The Statehouse has quietly filed and forgotten that occasional speculation that Gov. Daniel Walker will be on the Democratic national ticket in 1976.

The feeling beneath the Statehouse Dome is that there is about as much chance of Walker being picked for the nomination as there is of Northwestern playing in the next Rose Bowl.

Ironically, what has firmly closed the window on the nomination of Captain Agnew, in the view of the cynical cynics, is the Agnew affair.

Spurs T. Agnew advanced to the vice presidency and to momentary leadership in the 1976 presidential sweepstakes via the governorship of Maryland. Now it is that very odd that has doomed his political future.

It could happen to any governor, past or present, and especially of a state as large or populous as Maryland or

So much money is spent on public works, particularly highway projects, that the possibility of becoming involved in questionable situations are far less than those of governors running things back home.

In any event, Walker is already up to his ears in campaign contribution controversy centered around Chicagoan Anthony Angelos, whom Walker tried to appoint state Insurance Department director.

The Angelos affair is kept alive by persistent allegations that some Illinois liquor dealers were pressured into making illegal donations to Walker's 1972 campaign.

Walker has already had enough trouble publicly, this and other matters to eliminate him as a new, crusading or reform governor such as the late Adlai E. Stevenson, who was the Democratic 1952 presidential nomination after a single term as governor.

Whatever else Democrats seem determined to do in fashioning their ticket in 1976, it will be candidates who can face the public without a hint of blemish from elective offices previously held.

It is likely the Agnew case has automatically disqualified any governor from a spot on either national ticket in 1976.

The selection will probably come from the ranks of United States senators, whose chances of becoming involved in questionable situations are far less than those of governors running things back home.

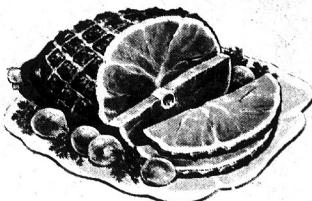

That's where Statehouse politicians in looking ahead rate Republican U.S. Sen. Charles H. Percy and Democratic U.S. Sen. Adlai E. Stevenson as the most likely to be chosen to land on their respective party's national tickets in 1976.

Warriors eye title chances after 27-6 grid win over Redbirds

By KEN THOMPSON
Post-Record Staff Writer

What is the recipe to stop a fluttering bird?

Start with a quarterback named Dale Williams who can engineer 24 first downs, can pass for a total of 130 yards, and is versatile enough to run for touchdowns.

Then add players who can rush for a total of 261 yards.

Put in a pinch of Greg Terrell who can intercept an enemy pass; add players named Dale Williams for two TD's and Paul Motzak for one.

And you have the Warriors of Granite City High School-South Saturday afternoon clipping the wings of the Alton Redbirds 27-6 at South Stadium.

Dale Williams, who can rush for a total of 261 yards, can make mistakes and still win a ball game. But to be any kind of a contender, we have to make mistakes and don't make those mistakes anymore."

The Warriors committed infractions leading to seven penalties for a loss of 85 yards, for three extra points kicks, and a large amount of a defensive squad which can hold the enemy to 33 yards in rushing and 62 in passing for one TD.

And the last Warriors of Granite City High School-South Saturday afternoon clipping the wings of the Alton Redbirds 27-6 at South Stadium.

Dale Williams, who can

rush for a total of 261 yards, can make mistakes and still win a ball game. But to be any kind of a contender, we have to make mistakes and don't make those mistakes anymore."

The Warriors committed infractions leading to seven penalties for a loss of 85 yards, two of the penalties resulted in touchdowns being called back.

In the opening minutes,

Terrell intercepted an Alton pass at the 30-yard line and carried it 23 yards to the Redbird 29, which started a Warrior touchdown drive.

Dombek, on a second-down-and-10 play from the 20, handed the ball to Dale Williams, who ran 14 yards off-tackle to Alton's 15. A penalty nullified the play and the ball was moved back to the 44.

Two plays later, a hook to Tom Schooley pass failed but a pass interference call against Alton gave South a first down on the 15. The redbirds failed to get a first down on the two-yard line.

A holding penalty against

South called back an apparent Williams touchdown run and the Warriors had to start again from Alton's 17.

Ray Smith caught a pass at the three, setting up a Dombek keep around left end for the TD. Dombek converted the extra point kick and South led 7-0 going into the second quarter.

Alton failed to move the ball and had to kick it away, giving South possession at their own 41.

Two Dombek-to-Schooley pass attempts failed but a side pass to Jerry Sedabres ended in a 20-yard dash to Alton's 38. From there, the school's screen pass moved the ball 35 yards to the five-yard-line, where he slipped and fell.

Once again South had to rely on the running game. Williams had plunged over from the one when a motion penalty canceled the play and moved the ball back to the five-yard-line.

Williams was called upon to carry the ball over. Burhan's kick then made possible a 14-0 lead at the half.

South in the third quarter twice had to give up the ball when penalties are incomplete pass prevented it from sustaining drives. Late in the period, a 41-yard advance moved the ball to the Redbird nine with 27 seconds left in the quarter.

The Chiefs of Prather Junior High added another victory Thursday, downing Edwardsville 16-0 on the Prather Field.

Receiving the opening kickoff at its 30, the Chiefs won a 70-yard drive which ended 12 plays later with Quarterback Tony Elliott in the end zone. A Cliff Moran two-point conversion run provided the 8-0 lead.

Elliott, who had the fourth quarter carried the ball in from four yards out for the next TD. John Shewell dashed across for a two-point conversion.

Edwardsville's late rally was stopped cold by Prather when Defensive Tackle Louis Medley forced a fumble recovered by Elliott.

Ebrecht, 16:43, and Futch, 16:50, were fifth and sixth place finishers Dave Tamm and Rich Morien, reduced to 16:56 times by almost one minute over the same distance.

Consistent ground gains by Roxana stop football Steelers 34-9

The injury-plagued Steelers of GCHS-North, caught in the giant jaws of the undefended Shells, scored only 10 yards total of 143 yards Friday night, going down to a 3-4 defeat at Roxana.

Roxana's "monster defense," without the services of its key players who are out with injuries, failed to stop the strong ground game of Roxana.

The Shells scored five touchdowns in the first half, third quarter, culminating to racking up 341 total yardage, of which only 30 yards resulted from passing.

Roxana's Dan Zitzelberger scored a one-yard scoring. He scored a one-yard toucher, ran after a 49-yard drive engineered by Quarterback Pat Calhoun in the second quarter.

A 30-yard 50-yard drive in the third quarter with a 29-yard run to the end zone. Late in the third period, he intercepted a Gene Logas pass for a 30-yard touchdown sprint and then ran a successful two-point conversion play.

North stopped a 79-yard drive in the one-yard-line in the opening minutes of play but the drive was stopped failing to capitalize on the opportunity.

The Shells put together a drive of 64 yards which ended with a Mike Pohlman 38-yard kick gave the Shells a 7-0 first quarter lead.

The Steelers' only touchdown came late in the second quarter on a fourth and goal situation at the Roxana 10-yard line.

Logas had put together a 97-yard drive but attempts to score were thwarted until he found Terry Ashby open in the end zone. The seven pass upped the score to 14-0.

An extra point kick by Lenny Wright was blocked.

Early in the third quarter after it's 14-0 North again moved into striking position on a 65-yard Logas to Al Sunderich pass from the 30. But the Steelers failed to move in for a score, settling for a 29-yard field goal to tie at 29-9.

The Shells later in the third period put the icing on the cake with Zitzelberger's 29-yard interception run, and a 50-yard TD sprint by Joe Tschannen after he caught the ball from the 30. But the only Roxana runs was the game.

Roxana stopped a last minute Shells TD drive at the three-yard line.

North next hosts Madison at 1:30 p.m. Saturday.

rush to stop the kick. Their attempt failed and the ball later ended in St. Paul's net for a South goal. (Press-Record Photo) consecutive games without a defeat over two seasons. There were two goals each by Twelman, John Stremlau and Mark Moran and single goals by Tom Galati, Bill Barron and Steve Axmacher.

MAKING IT LOOK EASY. Helping the SIUE Cougars defeat the University of Illinois-Chicago Circle 9-0 here Saturday afternoon was Tom Twelman (dark shirt), shown controlling the ball. Ranked No. 2 in the nation, SIUE has now won four straight, and has gone 19

South plays like champ in 11-0 game

The defending state soccer champions of GCHS-South outshot St. Paul of Highland 45 to 14, but the Trojans could not score them out for the second time this year. Final score was 11-0.

Coch Gene Baker said, "The key to our game plan is our passing. We short-pass very well."

Mark Voegele opened with three consecutive goals, the first after a long crossfield pass from Joe Grasso. He never scored from just outside the penalty area on a 15-yard pass from Don Goldschmidt, and then added a point from the ball in front of the side after breaking away from his defender.

Goldschmidt, on whom the Warriors had to almost solely depend earlier in the season because of injuries to other key players, had a field day with two goals and four assists.

Mike Austin scored, Bruce Grosshong scored and Mike Martinelli outwitted leg injury after the season bounded back with four of his own.

Keith Gehling assisted on four of the successful goal attempts. Baker regards Gehling as "one of our unsung heroes." He's a tremendous soccer player who doesn't get much recognition because he's either taking the attack or defending for us. I'm sure there are some coaches who are talking about taking a look at him."

Goalie Tom Clark, who last year set a record of 15 shutouts, saw action for the first time this year. Playing with a broken finger, he was commanded for holding St. Paul scoreless.

The Warriors, now 10-1, have lost to New Trier-East 3-0, and have tied with John of St. Louis. South will meet Gibault at Waterloo Wednesday at 4 p.m. for the first time this year.

The Bulldogs of Sparta, repeating last year's shutout over Madison, dominated Friday night's game at Sparta and defeated the Trojans 34-0.

Madison, losing 70 yards on eight penalties, failed to come within striking distance even though Quarterback Emmett Timmons completed eight out of nine passes for 96 yards.

Sparta was 13 for 25 in passing for a total of 130 yards. Two of the aerials went for touchdowns covering 47 and 33 yards.

55 Joe Young, Curt Turner and Ivan Simms, held a 96-yard Sparta drive in the first quarter, stopping the enemy march on the four-yard-line.

Scoring touchdowns against Madison Friday were Lyndon Beckley and Mark Waller on aerials from Quarterback Roger Gerlach, Mike Brown on a one-yard run and Gerlach on a 13-yard run.

Quarter scores were 0-0, 12-0 and 18-0.

The Trojans, 0-4 for the season, next will meet the

Said registration will be at 9 a.m. with a church service held before the business meeting.

U. S. aid sought for repairs to sewers, Kiwanians told

Mayor Paul Schuler, guest at the Breakfast Kiwanis club meeting in Charlie's Restaurant Thursday, told the club his office is making every effort to secure federal flood disaster funds to cover the cost of repairing sewer breaks in the Nameoki area.

The Mayor told the club that nearly $500,000 already has been spent and considerably more money is needed to finish repairing the breaks.

Mayor Schuler also reported that efforts are being made to obtain money from the federal government to improve traffic signs and problems at various city intersections.

Nameoki road will be extended to Highway 162, hopefully with funds from the motor fuel tax account.

The mayor was introduced by Kiwanian Ronald Coleman, program chairman for the meeting.

Question and answer period followed the Mayor's remarks.

Prior to breakfast, Mrs. Peggy Jones representing the Ladies Auxiliary of VFW Post 199, presented the club with a United States flag.

After a family-style breakfast a business meeting was conducted by President E. Ray Gruber.

Robert D. Harris introduced Ellis Herring, a local florist, as his guest.

Darrell Weible of the evening Kiwanis Club and a guest for the service, the "Save our Sight Program" held Saturday.

Kiwanian Jack Mulach, program chairman for this Thursday, informed the club that Harold Taylor, school administrative assistant to the superintendent of schools, will be the club's guest and review hiring procedures and school personnel practices.

Spotted fever considered a health threat in state

Just because Rocky Mountain spotted fever hits seldom in Illinois does not make it a less health threat to the individual victim than it should be, says the Department of Public Health.

Last year, there were 12 cases of the disease reported in the state. So far this year, there have been 13, according to Dr. Russell Martin.

A veterinarian in the department's Division of Disease Control, says there probably will be a few more, though cases decline dramatically after mid-September in this part of the nation.

Dr. Byron Francis, in the disease control division, said spotted fever accounted for a number of deaths before the development of antibiotics.

While it can now be controlled, it must first be diagnosed.

The person lies the problem, he said, since most physicians are not likely to immediately think of Rocky Mountain spotted fever unless a patient mentions he had been bitten by a tick 10 days to two weeks before becoming ill.

The ticks which carry the disease use as natural hosts varieties of squirrels, rabbits, chipmunks, raccoons, marmots and mice.

Infection of man is apparently incidental, and the ticks also can pass the disease on to domestic pets. Pets, however, seem to recover spontaneously with no treatment, and in fact, usually show no symptoms.

Presence of Rocky Mountain spotted fever in dogs, Dr. Martin said, can be determined only by blood tests which show the animal is infected.

With increases recently in outdoor activity — such as hiking, camping and backpacking — the department has issued a set of guidelines for treating tick bites.

While chemical repellants are available, they should not be applied to areas where ticks may be present.

Garmets with tight wrists and ankles, high boots, leggings and long trousers, particularly the trouser legs, may help prevent the tick becoming attached.

Despite every precaution, some ticks may reach the body.

Shopping center research report

Traffic congestion and other problems of customer distribution through shopping centers in this metropolitan area can be avoided through planning, according to a study concluded at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

The research was conducted by James R. Doyle as part of requirements for the master of science degree in city and regional planning.

Doyle said the six shopping centers he studied developed their acreage, extensive planning for parking appearance, or the circulation of consumers among the several stores.

In many instances, the developers did not realize they were beginning centers, Doyle said, so they concerned with other facilities in the area. The developers often had area growth, but they did not pay attention to it, Doyle's report says.

He recommends that planners take a more active role in helping developers plan to better serve consumers, while at the same time applying established principles to shopping center design to improve retail sales.

File $6,000 suit in accident case

Brenda Jackich of Granite City filed a $6,000 suit in circuit court at Edwardsville against Madison County Mutual Automobile Insurance Co. and Lester Thompson, claims adjuster for the company.

The suit charges that on June 4, 1972, she was a passenger in the auto of Terri Pittsworth, who was involved in an accident with the car of Clara Remond, 1000 W. Main Street, Suite 3. As a result of the accident, the complainant alleges she suffered injuries to her head, face and body and multiple scarring.

Sougs are $10,000 actual damages and $50,000 punitive damages.

The Schermer Bulletin

We are now into the third week of our anniversary sale, and so far we have been delighted with the results. And, the prize winners have been equally delighted. Don't forget we have four big weeks to go with 20 more prizes and of course, the BIG GRAND PRIZE OF FREE MEAT FOR ONE WHOLE YEAR.

We're still hearing a lot of fine compliments about our small tender lean beef that we are able to sell now and in particular about the quality of our ground beef items. We believe that we are at present the only store in this area that is NOT REPEATING LOGO GRADING IMPORTED FROZEN BEEF. We are buying our meat locally and it is fresh several times each day. We take it home ourselves and so we know that it is really tops. The only way to really know is to try it yourself.

St. John Guild views film

A film on steel and environment was shown by the Rev. Carl Eschenbrenner at a meeting Thursday. The program included the Afternoon Guild of St. John United Church of Christ.

Guests attending included members of St. Paul United Church of Christ, St. Paul United Church of Christ of Collinsville and the Evening Guild of the host church.

NEW SENIOR CITIZEN CLUB MEETING THURSDAY

A newly organized Granite City Senior Citizen Club, Group One, will hold its second meeting at 1:30 p.m. on Thursday at the recreation hall at the home of Homer Winklemeyer, the president. John Winklemeyer, announced today.

All members and friends are invited to attend, the president added.

Linda Sullivan becomes Mrs. David Owen Mathis

Mrs. Linda Raye Sullivan, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Sullivan, 3017 Circle Drive, and Mr. David Owen Mathis, son of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Mathis, 2405 Madison Ave., were united in marriage Saturday at the Glenview Chapel Assembly of God.

Bouquets of white and pink gladiolas and "mums" adorned the altar for the double-ring candlelight ceremony performed by the Rev. M. W. Wilson at 7 o'clock in the Granite City.

Mark Cox presided at the organ and accompanied Chuck Aspinall in singing "Romance from Romeo and Juliet," "Twelfth of Never" and The Lord's Prayer.

Given away in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full-length gown of nylon organza over taffeta with a full skirt banded with rows of embroidered lace and a ruffle at the hemline.

The Empire style bodice was created in lace with a high lace collar and accented with a row of covered buttons. Metal lace formed a capped effect at the upper part of the long full sheer sleeves and fashioned the wide cuffs.

Her mantilla veil was edged with a wide band of the delicate lace and she carried a bouquet of white carnations centered with lavender, pink and yellow daisies.

The maid of honor, Miss Brenda Sullivan, and bridesmaids Misses Jeannette Chapman, Sheryl Thick and Paula McKeon, all of Granite City, were gowned in identical dresses of candlelight chiffon over taffeta.

Both young people are graduates of Granite City High School. The former Miss Sullivan is employed in the office of Dr. Ober M. Lay and her husband works at the Nestle Co. plant.

They will reside in Granite City.

Mrs. Pearl Kingsley was appointed chairman of a potluck dinner to be held at noon, Wednesday, Oct. 17.

United Way deserves the same warm concern and financial help accorded by Quad-Cityans when they respond to specific emergency health needs

(The following article appeared in the Press-Record in January, discussing one of the "challenges of 1973." It is reprinted here to spotlight the annual Tri-Cities Area United Way campaign, which is currently in progress.)

Look and Life, general magazines, no longer exist. Specialty magazines, each emphasizing a particular subject, are flourishing.

During 1972, Quad-Cityans responded overwhelmingly to specific appeals for assistance. Three notable examples come to mind:

Anthony McCrea, nine years old, was burned severely in an accident involving flaming gasoline. He underwent skin operations but his condition remained poor and there was fear he might not survive.

The Press-Record ran a detailed article and things began to happen fast. Complicated procedural steps were carried out within a matter of hours and it was arranged for him to be flown to the Shriners' Burns Institute in Cincinnati.

His morale and physical condition improved remarkably and the doctors at the center described his progress as "astounding." The Marshall School student still must follow exercise routines so that muscles in his injured legs develop properly. But after 41 days in Ohio he was able to return home.

One of the happiest occasions for him and the Tri-City Shrine Club occurred Nov. 16 when he was able to attend and serve as the club's guest speaker.

Another nine-year-old Granite Cityan, John Allen Young, was disclosed by the Press-Record to be suffering from an incurable disease which eventually will make him totally blind.

He had voiced the hope of seeing principal historic sites to store them in his memory before his sight is gone. His desire resulted in constantly to help develop ways in which the Niedringhaus School pupil could travel extensively.

His life has been enriched by the experiences his fellow Quad-Cityans have helped bring about through their warm, generous interest and action.

The same kind of outpouring of concern—and willingness to do something about it—developed during the December 1972 Salvation Army "Tree of Lights" campaign. An unprecedented financial target of $12,000 was established and surpassed.

As a result, the holidays were brighter for a large number of people.

Families numbering 550—totaling several thousand persons—received food baskets, while 337 local school children obtained clothing and shoes.

Hundreds of other youngsters were given toys and dolls, and there were seasonal gifts to Scott Air Force Base patients and to aged residents of several nursing homes.

The point is obvious: Quad-Cityans care: When they recognize a need, their hearts melt, and "money is no object." They also are unselfish with their time and energy.

All of which brings up the magazine's point: Specialize and succeed; generalize and fall.

The Tri-Cities Area United Way is a fine organization composed of a dozen and a half agencies and scores of people performing helpful, desired services for virtually every Quad-Cityan.

Yet, a 100 per cent drive has eluded it for more years than it is comfortable to remember—and the operation of some of the agencies is in jeopardy.

Is the United Way appeal too general, too easy to shrug off?

How can an individual or group or business give $15 to a specific request and then give only $10 or $5 or nothing to such a large and comprehensive program as the United Way?

A $5 or $10 annual gift when divided up provides only a half-penny or penny per week per agency, an insufficient amount if such services are to continue.

There is no doubt about Quad-Cityans' generosity. How to unleash it more effectively to solve the United Way dilemma constitutes one of this community's chief challenges of 1973.

Ruling seen as threat to free enterprise system

By DONALD C. BAUDER
Capley News Service

The first instinct of most Americans is to favor the so-called underdog. The David fighting the Goliath syndrome is strong.

For many, however, concluded that the decision to make International Business Machines pay the small and money-losing Telex Corp. back its money for IBM's attempt to monopolize the computer peripherals business was some kind of victory for free enterprise.

At first reading, the reverse seems to be true. The overdog, IBM, as a victim of a legal decision that threatens the free enterprise system.

First, let us put the computer peripherals business in perspective.

Even its competitors will admit that IBM is the flower of the free enterprise system. It is technologically innovative, efficient in marketing, and in general, one of the best-managed enterprises of any kind.

For this reason, it doesn't matter what is known as the computer mainframe business—that is, the computers themselves. Its competitors in this business are also large and well-managed. Sperry, Raytheon, Honeywell, Burroughs, National Cash Register, Control Data and Xerox.

Each of these competitors has strong and non-discriminatory areas which permit them to make money despite their oligopolistic position in computers.

Theme of Newspaper Week—Data for free choice by citizenry

Newspaper week is being observed nationally Oct. 7-13. The theme this year is "Newspapers—Your foundation for free choice."

The following proclamation regarding 1973 Newspaper Week was issued by President Richard M. Nixon:

"The freedom of the press is one of the proudest and most zealously guarded aspects of our American heritage."

"Our newspapers are indispensable public servants dedicated to provide their readers with a vital foundation of information from which to exercise their freedom of choice."

"Now in its fortieth year, National Newspaper Week is an annual reminder of the intrinsic value of unfettered journalism in our lives."

"Soundly based on the assumption that an informed public is the best guarantee of a free America, newspapers have been the link of communication among our citizens and between them, their government and the world."

"Their unique responsibility is to insure that fairness and accuracy are basic if they are to be faithful to the public trust they hold."

"In tribute to our newspapermen, we ask that all Americans share in the sentiments of this National Newspaper Week, Oct. 7-13, 1973."

Truth a sleeping giant magnificently strong

By ALBERT BLANK
Philadelphia Evening Sun
Bulletin

The approach of this nation's 200th anniversary in 1976 reminds us of the foresight of the men who made the concept of a free press a foundation of this country.

The concept of a free press was laid down before the American Revolution by Sir William Blackstone in his Commentaries on the Laws of England.

"The liberty of the press is indeed essential to the nature of a free state, but this consists in laying no previous restraint upon publication, and not in freedom from censure for criminal matter when published."

The Founding Fathers knew some had a fear of democracy as well as a love of it.

The best cure they found for the fear of these fears was the guarantee of freedom of speech and freedom of the press which was incorporated into the First Amendment.

Freedom of the press is guaranteed in order that people may have sufficient information to participate intelligently as self-governing members in a democratic order.

Thomas Jefferson cautioned us when he said, "Our liberty depends on the freedom of the press and that cannot be limited without being lost."

The American press sees itself as not only having a constitutional right to print, but also a duty to print.

The tradition of courageous reporting is done in the knowledge that reporters are willing to suffer for it.

Special legal protection for their ethics and principles have kept them from revealing sources. To each reporter, there is a sacred confidence.

When he accepts the information for his story and assures his sources of anonymity, he does so at his own risk.

To yield would be an act of surrender of a free press.

Consistent with the freedom of man in space, the people's right to know is preserved and continues with pride to state that it will not reveal its sources, and darn the consequences.

The public's esteem of the press and the press' esteem of the public will be limited as the press never loses its faith or esteem in itself.

There is no other institution in American life as deliberately open to criticism as the press. The reporter or scientist can long remain out of the unhappiness with our society the press owes the people absolute intellectual honesty.

It must continue to tell them not only what is true, but what is as well as the press.

If given the truth, the people can depend upon to meet any national crisis.

The great point is to bring people into the light.

Public opinion based on misinformation will put our country into great trouble.

The truth can be a strength, but it can also be a magnetism in its strength.

In arriving at the truth, the press should not inflame the public purpose, but neither should it bury the public into a false sense of security.

Our press is not a permanent power and that is why it is becoming a moral and intellectual institution with a creed, a mission and dedication.

A great deal has been written and said about the importance of a free press. The press has almost become a platitude.

Let us forget, however, many so called platitudes are facts that is the case with our free press.

Without such an institution, freedom would be on its way out of our lives.

The judge decreed that in the peripherals market, IBM did not acquire its monopoly status because of "superior skill, foresight and management."

IBM, however, argued that it had adopted predatory practices.

Even among IBM competitors,

Soviet repression of writers recalls the Stalin era Moscow trials

The spectacle of the repression of Russian writers and scientists by the regime in Moscow is peculiarly repellent in these days of U.S.-Soviet detente.

The "news conference" called by the Soviet government at which two convicted dissenters were presented to the foreign press in order to recite their "confessions" reminded us of the Moscow trials of the Stalin era.

At the same time, the prosecutors warned novelist Alexander Solzhenitsyn and physicist Andrei Sakharov that they may be arrested soon for their outspoken criticisms of the government's violations of human rights.

Solzhenitsyn, winner of the Nobel Prize for literature, and Sakharov, who is credited with major responsibility for the scientific development work behind Russia's H-bomb, have given extraordinary press conferences recently to Western journalists to make public their protests against their government's repressive policies.

It is evident that the rulers of the Kremlin have a major revolt of the intellectuals on their hands.

The detente overshadows all of this.

Whatever their motives — and it appears that fear of China is the main one — the Communist leadership of the USSR has agreed to negotiations with the United States toward ending the cold war and increasing international trade.

Stricter rules for public water supply

The Illinois Environmental Protection Agency is drawing up new rules and regulations which, if adopted, would require every public water supply in the state to meet certain standards.

The new rules also propose tightening up on permissible levels of various substances in public water supplies and conceivably could require some Illinois communities to seek new water sources.

John Anderson, chief of the public water supply section of the state EPA, said the proposal is now being developed and is expected to go to Acting EPA Director John Marco within a few days.

Then the bulky document — which will contain all the new rules and regulations the agency seeks to adopt, but must include all the rationale by which the recommendations were reached — will then go to the Pollution Control Board. The PCB must conduct public hearings on the suggested new code.

While the proposal makes some environmental changes, Anderson said, it makes no real change in the "underlying concepts" on which the water supply section has operated in the past.

Finally, he said, the adoption of federal drinking water standards will give the EPA clearer guidelines for future use in determining whether a water source consists of materials acceptable for materials which can be harmful if ingested over a long period.

Some communities in northern Illinois, such as Crystal Lake, have high levels of

Judge Clark to speak Oct. 26

The Crime Prevention and Control Committee of the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce, headed by Warren DeCatur, has invited U.S. Senator Paul L. Douglas and Judge Harry Clark to speak at a meeting to be held at the YMCA Friday, Oct. 26 at 3 p.m.

Judge Clark has been a circuit court judge for more than 17 years and has been the chief presiding judge in our two-county judicial district.

He resides in Alton and is a World War II veteran.

The new system will feel there is a gap in communications between the various police forces, the attorney and the judiciary, and in Judge Clark's discussion will try to clear up any misunderstanding and inform the community regarding efforts to resolve the matter.

The public is invited.

New money order rates

A new money order with the limit raised from $100 to $300 per order will be available at Quad-Cities post offices on Oct. 13, according to Postal Service officials. Clinton of Madison and Charles Simmons of Venice, and Officer in Charge Herbert Backs of Granite City.

The new system will save both the customer and U.S. Postal Service money. Buyers of the new money order will pay one fee, 40 cents — for money orders valued from $50.01 to $300. Fees for lesser amounts will remain the same.

"Under the old system, a $300 money order would involve the imprinter is based on the same method of printing as the credit card imprint is being used.

"From time to time we turn up water supplies in routine testing which have some contamination from a source we can't identify, and the problem usually clears up with temporary chlorination. The imprints don't occur in the first place if the water supply had been chlorinated."

For communities which may violate federal standards on drinking water, Anderson added, adoption of the new regulations wouldn't necessarily mean they automatically have to begin looking for a new water source. If the substance in question is not a real health risk, the community can petition for a variance from the Pollution Control Board which would allow the existing water source to continue to be used.

Madison Amvet membership 183

With the addition of four new members, Dave Clark, Sam Georgeff, Jim Johnson, and Fred Kayich, Amvet Post 204 in Madison has an active membership of 183. Vasil Graville, membership chairman, announced at the organization's Thursday evening meeting in their building at 1242 Iowa St., Madison.

Associate members approved Tuesday were Frank Scarfone, Eldon Rhoads, Lee Anthony, Dennis Baker, Mike Tritan Sr., R. P. Hennessey, George Gunderson, Michael Graville, Ray Jones and Wayne Burris.

Members were informed that anyone planning to attend the Oct. 27 "Clambake" at the American Legion in Madison must register by Oct. 20.

It was announced by Graville that the Christmas party for children and the evening dinner for adults will be held at the Hall and that Santa Claus will attend.

The Amvets voted to make a contribution to the current United Way drive.

Commander Thomas Voloski presided at the meeting, attended by 39 members.

Burglars fail to crack safe

An attempt to enter a safe at Granite City Dodge Agency, 1911 Madison Ave., Thursday night, apparently was unsuccessful, but the burglars ransacked the firm's parts room and office and stole $300 cash from a box, and a flashlight. An inventory is being taken to determine if other items are missing.

An employee told police that a steel cart, and two tanks of oxygen and acetylene gas had been taken from the office door and hoses from tanks stretched toward the safe.

Goggles and a lighter were found on the floor near the safe. The window pane of glass was broken to gain entry into the building, the pane is missing.

The hearing will be held at the above described site.
